Consent to release information

- The New Zealand Police may release any information they hold relevant to the purpose of enabling the District Licencing Committee (DLC) to decide on my suitability to hold a licence or managers certificate
 - Conviction histories and infringement/demerit reports
 - Active charges and warrants to arrest
 - Charges that did not result in a conviction including those that were acquitted, discharged without conviction, diverted or withdrawn
 - Any interaction I have had with New Zealand Police considered relevant to the role being vetted, including investigations that did not result in prosecution
 - Information subject to name suppression where that information is necessary to the purpose of the vet
- NZ Police may release the information listed in Section 1 to reporting agencies for the reason listed above
- If I am eligible under the Criminal Records (Clean Slate) Act 2004, my conviction history will not be released
- The Police may disclose new relevant information to the DLC after the completion of the Police Vet in the following circumstances:
 - The disclosure of the newly-obtained information is considered to be justified under the Privacy Act 1993 (if it had existed or been available at the time of the Police vet, it would have been disclosed); and
 - The Police has ascertained that the purpose of the Police vet still exists.
- Information provided in this consent form may be used to update New Zealand Police records.
- I am entitled to a copy of the vetting result released to the DLC and can seek a correction by contacting Police.
- I may withdraw this consent, prior to Police's disclosure of the vetting result.
